1) In the first part of this City Walk your guide will show you the Roald Amundsen Monument, the small Prostneset Pier, the North Norwegian Art Museum, the bust of Richard With (founder of the Coastal Steamer), the old beach line (Sjøgata), some Imperial style houses, the Market Place, the Fishermen Monument, and some old wooden warehouses by the sound.

2) The Polarmuseet features exhibits of arctic hunting and trapping, and holds exhibits of original artifacts used in the expeditions of Roald Amundsen and Fridtjof Nansen. Henry Rudi the Polar Bear King and Wanny Woldstad the first female arctic hunter have their place in this cozy museum too.

3) In the second part of the City Walk your guide will show you Skansen: the oldest house in town, the small shipyard where Amundsen built the vessel Gjøa, some old worker houses, some more Imperial Style houses in their Trondheim and Bergen versions, the Perspektiv Museum, the old Cinema, the Pedestrian Street, the Northern Most Catholic Cathedral, the City Hall, the Library, the Northern Most Protestant Cathedral, Roald Amundsen's Place, Mack: the Northern Most Brewery, the oldest pub in town, and the Art Association.

4) Polaria shows a 15 minutes Panorama film about the group of Islands Svalbard located between 76 and 81 degrees north, after the film your guide will lead you into an Arctic Experience Walk where you will observe different aquariums with live crustaceans, fish, and the big Bearded Seals Bella and Mai-San. After the Arctic Walk you will have time for shopping at Polaria's souvenir shop.

5) In the third part of the City Walk your guide will show you the vessel Polstjerna, you will walk along a rundown quay behind the Brewery, you will enter the Nerstranda Shopping Mall, your guide will show you the Skarven restaurant and the Train Station pub, and finally your guide will lead you back to your hotel or anywhere in the City center where you would like have a drink or dine.
